

Governmental Auditing:

Course 1 – Fundamental Principles for Government Auditing

Course Description

Generally Accepted Government Auditing Standards (GAGAS), also known as the Yellow Book, provide a framework for audit organizations and auditors that conduct audits of government entities, entities that receive government awards, and other entities that require a Yellow Book audit. The term “Yellow Book” comes from the original publication of GAGAS in 1972, which was wrapped in a bright yellow jacket. There have been several revisions of the Yellow Book throughout the years. The most current publication, and the focus of this course, is Government Auditing Standards: 2018 Revision.

Completion Deadline & Exam: This course, including the examination, must be completed within one year of the date of purchase. In addition, unless otherwise indicated, no correct or incorrect feedback for any exam question will be provided.

Course Level: Overview. This program is appropriate for professionals at all organizational levels.

CPE Credits: 4 (CPA)

Category: Auditing - Government

Prerequisite: None

Advanced Preparation: None

Course Learning Objectives

After studying this course you will be able to:

1. Recognize the purpose of GAGAS and how it is applied to different engagements
2. Recognize threats to independence
3. Identify professional judgment and competence requirements in a GAGAS engagement